The China Mail. HONGKONG, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 23, 1881 For some time back we have refrained from any reference to the arrangements in the Supreme Court for the conduct of the business in that Department; the undue delay in the appointment of a Registrar, and the strange attachmen which the present Administration appears to have for acting and provisonal appointments, render it necessary that here on Monday, October 3rd. Several rumours have been circulation at one time or other, it is true: but no definite information has been received, so far as we know, as to the likely successor either of Sir John Smale or Mr H. F. Gibbons. This is a that vessel experienced at the hands little surprising, in the case of the Registrar, for it is now eight months since Mr Gibbons left the Colony. Sir John Smale, on the other hand, sailed off with four months' vacation leave and two months' leave on half-salary - which period is now almost expired -and the arrangements necessary to provide an occupant for the post of Chief Justice would as yet be scarcely complete. Indeed, there is a whisper that Sir John has had a bit of a tuesle at Home on the subject of pension; and the possibility of His Lordship again taking ship for the "dot on the ocean," there to administer justice in the old fashion. heads at the Colonial Office. This argument must have exercised the influence which it was calculated to do : and, we are told, the frightened authorities conceded the terms asked. If this be true, there can be no doubt that the community of Hongkong owe a debt of gratitude to some high officials for having grasped the position, and avoided what might have been a portentous difficulty. In view of these contingencies as who may fill the higher positions in the man of experience in Court matters at present in the Department. ends with this month, and there will be the usual rush of work to be done when the sittings resume, it behaves the Administration to see that the staff is equal to the occasion. At the present time we have no hesitation in asying that the greatest difficulty is being experienced in getting the work done, and that unless additional assistance be furnished, serious public inconvenience will certainly result during the next few months. Until within the last few days, Mr Sangater was the only officer in Court before whom an affidevit could be sworn, or proof of a debt in Bankruptoy could be legally received, the only other Commissioner to administer oaths being Mr Mossop, formerly Deputy Registrar, and now a solicitor in business for himself. Mr. Ball has now, we understand, been empowered to act in this capacity; but as his time is mainly occupied with the important duties of interpretation, members of the legal profession are not unfrequently constrained to call at Mr Mossop's office in order to obtain what, from pressure of work in Court, cannot be performed within the Department. This is not as it should be; and when it is borne in mind that the whole gear of the Registar's Department would be sure to get hopelessly out of order were any ickness to fall upon its present efficient head, the importance of the situation may be realised. It appears, also, that the post of Accountant in this Department will ere long be vacant by the removal of Mr Barif to the Post Office, on the anticipated departure on leave of the Postmaster-General. This change, if it should take place ere the Registrar's Office suffers that reform which has been so long promised, will weaken still more the hands of all concerned. We trust that those responsible will give some attention to these considerations, on behalf of the public and the legal profession.

As we have given considerable importance to the case of the Ocean, and referred in pretty strong terms to the treatment of the New South Wales Government, we may mention that a motion was on the paper for the Legislative Council of that Colony, for the 24th August in the name of Mr Charles Campbell, in these terms :-- 'That, in the opinion of this House, the recent action of the Government in the case of the Chinese passengers on board the steamship Ocean was not justifiable from a sanitary any more than from an international point of view. It is rumored that the cause which led to the quick despatch of H. It is added that the flagship is sailing toward Honolulu from the South American coast, and that the ships of other naval powers have been ordered to rendezvous there.

A ORANGE in the condition of General Garfield seems to have taken place just after the American Mail was made up, which was delivered here yesterday. The following are two telegrams from American papers to hand this morning which bring the news as to his condition up to the 25th.

Washington August 17 .- This morning at 4.30 o'clock, while Mr McGill, one of the guards at the jail, was passing through the corridor, something in Guiteau's appearance attracted his attention. Entering the cell he found the assassin in possession of a knife. The prisoner who formerly occupied this cell had probably concealed the knife there, which Guiteau found. It is a substitute for a jackknife, razor or dagger blade, and is two or three inches long and half an inch broad. When McGill demanded the knife, Guiteau refused to surrender it. McGill drew a pistol, and then an exciting tussle ensued, Guiteau making every exertion to get the pistol from the guard. He succeeded after a struggle, but McGill after a strenuous exertion regained possession of it. In the scuffic that followed the weapon was discharged and the report brought the other guards to the assistance of McGill, Guiteau was finally disarmed. He had succeeded, however, in cutting McGill's clothing pretty badly, and came very near inficting a dangerous wound. Guiteau then retended to be crazy, and complained that his pistol had been taken from him.

the facts indicate that Guiteau was meditating an escape, and he had formed some desperate plan. His assumption of insanity is believed to be a dodge, as he has acted as if perfectly same all along. Later it i evident now that the Warden of the jail not only concealed the facts, but misrepresented them, concerning the assault of Guiteau on the guard this morning. The only motive was that the Warden wanted to protect himself and assistants from the appearances of having been relax with Guiteau, in having permitted him to get possession of a deadly weapon.

THE following is from the N. C. D. News' translations from the Peking Gazette, August 13th:-

The Governor of Shantung reports the wreck, three months ago, of the S. Hankwang belonging to the China Merchants' Steamship Company. She was bound for Tientsin and had on board 5812 piculs of rice for the Imperial granaries, besides a miscellaneous cargo. On the 18th of May last, whilst in a dense fog, she struck on a reel off the coast of Shantung some hundred miles from Chefoo. Half the cargo was at once thrown overboard to lighten her, but the hottom of the ship had been staved in and she was leaking badly and could not be got off. The Taotai residing at Chefoo, on receipt of the news, at once despatched the S. S. Tai An with capable officers on board to her assistance. All efforts to move her however proved unavailing, and the officers had to content themselves with transferring the remainder of the cargo, more or less damaged by sea-water, to the shore, and hiring a large gang of men to take out her machinery. On May 28th and June 6th respectively two of the Company's steamers arrived from Shanghai with 200 Chinese and foreign workmen on board. These soon succeeded in removing the engines and set to work to repair the bottom of the vessel in the hope of floating her. Their labours progressed satisfactorily and were on the point of succeeding, when a violent gale came on and undid all that had been accomplished. The vessel became a complete wreck and was disposed of, as she lay, to a foreigner. The damaged rice and other cargo was conveyed back to Shanghai. Memorialist observes that, although vessel ran ashore in a fog, those in charge Civil Department, Series of 1881, of her cannot fairly be accused of negligence in her management. OF THE MISSIONS OF TIMOR. My Lord,-Having just been suspended from the exercise of my functions and from its emoluments, by H. E. the Governor of this Colony for my refusal to accept the oath of the petty chief of Laleis on the act of his vassalago, I feel it incumbent on me to inform your Lordship of the unexpected as well as sad event, thus submitting all my acts to the just appreciation of your Lord.

After the verdict given by the Civil Court of Dilly, whereby it was declared that the petty chief, Manoel dos Remedios-the rebel who caused, in the last two wars against the forces of the Portuguese Gosident Garfield's medical attendants last vernment, numerous families to regret even night continue to-day, and, according to till to-day the loss of relations murdered the latest bulletin, which has just been is. and ordered to be murdered by him, for sued, very faint hopes are now entertained motives of superstition contrary to Religion, -was not guilty, it was deemed a cer-The condition of the General is again tainty that he would soon return to this place in order to swear fealty, as is August 25. - The bulletin issued to customary. E. asked me if a reconciliation of that man with the Church was possible and I had the satisfaction of telling him that it was not only possible but very easy; as it would suffice if he proved in some way his repentance and signed a deed binding himself to rebuild the Church in his Kingdom and to submit to any salutary penance His Lordship the Bishop should think proper to apply to his case. The Governor agreed with me in my reasons, and assured me that he would advise the said petty chief to make all those acts of submission, stating to me. at the same time, that he was sure that that man would not object to any of the condi-

> Twenty-three days had elapsed when it was reported as a certainty that the petty chief was to make his reconciliation with the Church; but on the 25th inst. I went again to the Government House, at the request of the Governor, who told me then that the petty chief would not submit to anything. I was surprised, as several persons had assured me that he was desirous of a reconciliation and was ready to rebuild in his Kingdom a church of stone and brick and above all because I had, a few days before, received a letter from Father Jacob, Missionary at Beancan (jurisdiction of Laleia) informing me that the petty chief had been there and promised to cover with zine or tiles the church of that locality (not yet finished, as, it having been commenced in the time of ex-Governor Hugo, it had been abandoned after his departure.) The Governor, however, transmitted to me the news he had received from that wretched man, when he advised him to be reconciled. I gave entire faith to it, regretting truly such a rebellion. I stated to His Excellency that in such a case no priest could accept the oath. His Excellency asked me to make a written declaration. I begged then to call his attention to the fact that the proper formal procedure would be for me, as he was to write to me inviting me to the act of vassalage as is customary,

On the following day (26th), I received a letter of invitation which I answered; and letters were then interchanged which terminated in a despatch of His Excellency declaring me suspended from the exercise of my functions and from the emoluments. because a criminal action had been instituted against me. I beg to send, herewith, all the correspondence, with which your Lordship will do what your Lordship thinks fit. On my part, I understood that, after that iniquitous despatch, based on false assertions. I should be passive in all violence that might be made to me. And here I am. your Lordship; here I am, waiting the hour. very happy for me, when I shall be doubt the legality of the acts of vassalage State:

What causes me great sadness, your Lordship; is the pain I mourn still more is the scandal that is by seeing thus trampled upon, the ecclesisstical authority vested in me, and the trouble that the administration of the affairs of these Missions suffers : and. lastly. the foreboding that all this will be only the beginning of a more cruel persecution declared against the Clergy and against April 27th, 1881. . To the Honourable the Colonial Secretary, Sir.—In answer to your very pressing letter No. 114 from the Secretary's office. I beg to state to you the following, in order Governor of the same.

I told you yesterday, in my letter No. 17 of the present series, that, for reasons quite independent of my will but in accordance that are generally ascribed to him. with the good of Religion, I could not accept the invitation His Excellency the will say, Mr Secretary, that it is lawful to Governor ordered to be made to me to go the Minister of Religion to take the oath of and take the oath upon the Holy Gospels | a man that despises him? of the Brigadier Regent of Laleia; and to-day, as Superior of these Missions, I am upon the Holy Gospels, can the Anointed of of the defendants had assaulted and robbed bound to add that, for the same reasons, I cannot allow any priest under my jurisdic- lives as if he were not so, and who declares holding his queue while the others were

I aknowledge, it is true, it to be a constant practice in this district for priests to go and take the oaths of Regents, when they come to swear fealty; but I know as well that this usage can have some exceptions in special cases like the present. beg to state finally that it is my peaceful and respectful character towards constituted authority, that induces me not to satisfy fully the wishes of His Excellency the Governor—that is, not to state officially the reasons that hinder me from accepting his invitation, reasons that are so well-known to the public that my presence or that of take the customary oath would be a serious scandal to the Christians who are proud to be obedient sons of the Holy Church and respectors of the Catholic Religion.

His Excellency says, tending to put in doubt the legality of the act of vassaluge or calling it scandalous, contrary to morals and religion. No, Mr Secretary, I have not said so ; nor did I make the least hint as to the illegality of vassalage. What I have affirmed, and do even now affirm, is, -that the presence of a priest to take the oath, under the exceptional circumstances of the present case, would be a scandal to the Christians, and that the refusal on the part of the missionaries would tend to support the uniformity of the principles of morals and to confirm as much as possible the respect for Religion.

His Excellency the Governor must know these truths in his inner conscience No. 18, Mission House at Laleia, the public knows them also, and I have always been frank in explaining them in private conference with His Excellency. VICTORIA.

MELBOURNE, August 27. At a meeting of the Shipowners' Association, attention was called to the practice of local and other colonial insurance companies continuing to charge an additional premium of 21 per cent. on vessels and cargoes passing through Torres Straits. which the Association thought should be abolished in the face of a thorough survey of that route, and lighting and buoying, rendering it safe as any navigation on the Australian coast. It was decided to take united action with other bodies interested in securing a reduction, it being asserted that no extra charge was made by continental and European companies, and that its imposition here tended to debar colonial owners from adopting the route which was otherwise advantageous. A conference of representatives of the Mercantile Marine Service, shipowners. and kindred associations, has been held to arrange the principles of a bill for the establishment of a Marine Board of Victoria, which, it is intended, shall take the place of the Steam Navigation Board, and have the administration of all marine affairs not included in the Harbour Trust jurisdic-

In consequence of the high figure demanded for the steamer Febret. £9,000, the Government has abandoned the intention of purchasing her, but as present circumstances render it necessary to obtain a new and fast vessel for the local service in connection with the lighthouses, &c., Cabinet has decided to recommend Parliament to vote a sum for the purchase of a suitable steamer in England. The Central Board of Health have reported to the Government that, as Victoria and New South Wales are practically one colony, owing to the daily overland traffic, they do not see how any more precautions can be taken to prevent the introduction of small-pox, but they believe that efficient measures have been taken to efficiently deal with any case which may appear in Victoria. The Hon. W. J. Clarke has presented a further sum of £1000 to Trinity College, agreeing, on the advice of Bishop Moorhouse, that the money be applied to the foundation of a lay scholarship, open to all-

The Southern Russia Jewish Relief Fund has reached £1400, all of which has been subscribed in Melbourne.

The Chief Secretary has received a telegram from the Agent General announcing than an Exhibition will be held at Cornelians, near Venice, from the 1st to the 20th November, for the purposes of a comparative show of wine growing and wine walking appliances. The show is intended o be open to the World.

THE CHINA REVIEW.

THE widely-expressed regret at the discontinuance of Notes & Queries on China and Japan, has induced the publishers of this journal to issue a publication similar in object and style, but slightly modified in certain details.

THE CHINA REVIEW, or Notes and Queries on the Far East, is issued at intervals of two months, each number containing about 60 octavo pages, occasionally illustrated with lithographs, photographs, woodcuta, &c., should the papers published demand, and the circulation justify, such extra matter. The subscription is fixed at $6.50 postage paid, per annum, payable by non-residents in Hongkong half-yearly in advance. The publication includes papers original and selected upon the Arts and Sciences, Ethnology, Folklore, Geography, History, Literature, Mythology, Manners and Cus-toms, Natural History, Religion, &c., &c., of China, Japan, Mongolia, Tibet, the Eastern Archipelego and the "Far East" generally. A more detailed list of subjects upon which contributions are especially invited is incorporated with each number. Original contributions in Chinese, Latin, French, German, Spanish, Italian or Portuguese, are admissible. Endeavours are made to present a resumé in each number of the contents of the most recent works bearing on Chinese matters. Great attention is also paid to the Review department. Notes and Replies are classified together as "Notes" (head references being or Queries), as are also those queries which though asking for information, furnish new or unpublished details concerning the mat- Roman Catholic Cathedral, Wellington ter in band. It is desirable to make the Queries proper as brief and as much to the point as possible.

The China Review for July and August, 1875, is at hand. It says that forty-two cossys were sent in to compete for the best St. Joseph's (R.C.) Church, Garden paper on the advantages of Christianity for the development of a State. All our learned societies should subscribe to this scholarly Temperance Hall, specially adapted for and enterprising Review. It is a sixty paged, bi-monthly, repertory of what scholars are ascertaining about China. The lecture on Chinese Postry in this volume is alone worth the price of the Review. dress China Review, Hongkong.-Northern

Christian Advocate (U.S.) Trubner's Oriental Record contains the following notice of the China Review :- "This is the title of a publication, the first number of which has lately reached us from Hongkong, where it has been set on foot as in some respects a continuation of Notes and Queries on China and Japan, the extinction of which useful serial a year or two ago has been much regretted in Europe as well as in China. The present publication, judging by the number now before us, is intended to occupy a position, as regards China and the neighbouring countries, somewhat similar to that which has been filled in India by the Calcutta Review. The great degree of attention that has been bestowed of late years upon the investigation of Chinese literature, antiquities, and social developments, to say nothing of linguistic studies, has led to the accumulation of important stores of information, rendering some such channel of publicity as is now provided extremely desirable; and contributions of much interest may fairly be looked for from the members of the foreign consular services, the Chinese Customs' corps, and the missionary body, among whom a high degree of Chinese scholarship is now assiduously cultivated, and who are severally represented in the first number of the Review by papers highly creditable to their respective authors. In a paper on Dr. Legge's She King, by the Rev. E. J. Eitel, to which the place of honour is deservedly given, an excellent summary is presented of the chronological problems and arguments involved in connexion with this important work. Some translations from Chinese novels and plays are marked by both accuracy and freshuess of style; and an account of the career of the Chinese poet-statesman of the eleventh century, Su Tung-p'o, by Mr. E. C. Bowra, is not only historically valuable, but is also distinguished by its literary grace. Beside notices of new books relating to China and the East, which will be a useful feature of the Review, if carried out with punctuality detail, we are glad to notice that "Notes" and "Queries" are destined to find a place in its pages also. It is to be that this opening for contributions on Chinese subjects may evoke a similar degree of literary seal to that which was displayed during the lifetime of its predepersor in the field, and that the Ohina Review may receive the support necessary to insure its continuance. The publication is intended to appear every two months, and will form a substantial octavo magazine,

THE CHINESE MAIL.

This paper is now issued every day. The subscription is fixed at Four Dollars per annum delivered in Hongor Seven Dollars Fifty Cents including postage to Coast ports.

It is the first Chinese Newspaper ever issued under purely native direction. The chief support of the paper is of course derived from .. the native community. amongst whom also are to be found the guarantors and securities necessary to place it on a business and legal footing.

The projectors, basing their estimates upon the most reliable information from the various Ports in China and Japan .-Australia, California, Singapore. Penang, Saigon, and other places frequented by the Chinese, -- consider themselves in guaranteeing an ultimate lat Class Cargo Boat o 8 oz 900 circulation of between 3,000 and 4,000 copies. The field open to a paper of this description—conducted by native efforts, but progressive and anti-obstructive in toneis almost limitless. It on the one hand commands Chinese belief and interest while on the other it deserves every ald that can be given to it by foreigners.
